2. Basis of Preparation

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the first half year ended 31 March 2025 have been prepared in accordance with Singapore Financial Reporting Standards (International) ("SFRS(I)") 1-34 Interim Financial Reporting issued by the Accounting Standards Council Singapore ("ASC"). The condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include all the information required for a complete set of financial statements. However, selected explanatory notes are included to explain events and transactions that are significant to an understanding of the changes in the Group's financial position and performance since the last audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2024.

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those adopted by the Group and the Company in its most recently audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2024, which were prepared in accordance with SFRS(I)s. The Group has adopted all the applicable new and revised SFRS(I)s and SFRS(I) Interpretations that are mandatory for the accounting periods beginning on or after 1 October 2024 as set out in Note 2.1.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars ("SGD" or "S$") and all values in the tables are rounded to the nearest thousand (S$'000), except when otherwise indicated.

2.1. Adoption of new and amended standards and interpretation

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year except in the current financial period, the Group has adopted all the new and revised standards which are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 October 2024. The adoption of these standards did not have any material effect on the financial performance or position of the Group.

2.2. Use of judgements and estimates

The preparation of the Group's condensed interim consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each reporting period. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

(a) Judgments made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the condensed interim consolidated financial statements:

Determination of functional currency

The Group measures foreign currency transactions in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries. In determining the functional currencies of the entities in the Group, judgment is required to determine the currency that mainly influences sales prices for goods and services and of the country whose competitive forces and regulations mainly determines the sales prices of its goods and services. The functional currencies of the entities in the Group are determined based on management's assessment of the economic environment in which the entities operate and the entities' process of determining sales prices.

2. Basis of Preparation (cont'd)

2.2. Use of judgements and estimates (cont'd)

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period are discussed below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the condensed interim consolidated financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

(i) Allowance for expected credit losses of trade receivables and contract assets

The Group uses a provision matrix to calculate ECLs for trade receivables. The provision rates are based on days past due for various groupings of various customer segments that have similar loss patterns.

The provision matrix is initially based on the Group's historical observed default rates. The Group will calibrate the matrix to adjust historical credit loss experience with forward-looking information. At every reporting date, historical default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The assessment of the correlation between historical observed default rates, forecast economic conditions and ECLs is a significant estimate. The amount of ECLs is sensitive to changes in circumstances and of forecast economic conditions. The Group's historical credit loss experience and forecast of economic conditions may also not be representative of customer's actual default in the future.

The carrying amount of trade receivables and contract assets as at 31 March 2025 was $73,107,000 (30 September 2024: $65,965,000).

(ii) Impairment of investment in subsidiaries

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that an investment in subsidiary is impaired. Factors such as the subsidiary being in a shortfall position compared to the cost of investment or in a recurring loss-making position are objective evidence of impairment. If any indication exists, the Group makes an estimate of the subsidiary's recoverable amount.

A subsidiary's recoverable amount is the higher of its carrying amount and its value in use. Where the carrying amount of an investment in subsidiary exceeds its recoverable amount, the investment is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. The value in use calculations are based on a discounted cash flow model. The recoverable amount is most sensitive to the discount rate used for the discounted cash flow model as well as the expected future cash inflows and the terminal growth rate used for extrapolation purposes.

The carrying amount of the Company's investment in subsidiaries at the end of the reporting period was $31,749,000 (30 September 2024: $31.749,000).

(iii) Impairment of non-financial assets

An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use. The fair value less costs to sell calculation is based on available data from binding sales transactions in an arm's length transaction of similar assets or observable market prices less incremental costs for disposing the asset. The value in use calculation is based on a discounted cash flow model. The cash flows are derived from the budget for the next five years and do not include restructuring activities that the Group is not yet committed to or significant future investments that will enhance the asset's performance of the cash generating unit being tested. The recoverable model is most sensitive to the discount rate used for the discounted cash flow model as well as the expected future cash inflows and the growth rate used for extrapolation purposes.

The Group's property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets at the end of the reporting period was $61,003,000 and $8,508,000 (30 September 2024: $63,579,000 and $8,814,000), respectively. The Company's property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets at the end of the reporting period was $30,090,000 and $8,375,000 (30 September 2024: $30,869,000 and $8,644,000) respectively.

3. Seasonal operations

17. Fair value of financial instruments

(a) Fair value hierarchy

The Group categories fair value measurement using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation inputs used as follows:

- Level 1 Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices).
- Level 3 Significant unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

The Building and Construction Authority (BCA) has projected Singapore's construction demand for 2025 to range between S$47 billion and S$53 billion, up from S$32 billion to S$38 billion in 2024. BCA had also reported preliminary total construction demand for 2024 reached S$44.2 billion in nominal terms, exceeding its mid-year forecast of between S$35 billion and S$41 billion. Against this backdrop of robust domestic demand, the Group intends to actively capitalise on emerging market opportunities. However, recent U.S. policy shifts, including new tariffs announced in April 2025, had introduced uncertainty in global trade, affecting supply chains and increasing raw material costs. While these pressures remain, the latest trade agreement between the U.S. and China on 12 May2025 to slash tariffs for at least 90 days has eased some tensions, offering tentative relief to global markets and supply temporary.

Nonetheless, geopolitical risks and uncertainties are expecting to continue to pose challenges to market conditions and operational costs across the region. Despite these headwinds, the Group remains focused on strategic cost management and optimizing operational efficiencies in its core product segments, including reefer containers and building products for infrastructure and construction projects within aluminium, mild steel, stainless steel, and UPVC segments.

Looking ahead, the Group will maintain a cautious approach, staying flexible to adapt to market changes, and continue to prioritize business management and cost discipline through operational efficiency.
